It's all happening!

Here's what working models say about assignments they've got through the Talent Management Group

Sanjay
Fee: £120
Ref:K243837

VALUABLE EXPERIENCE

It was a good feeling to be a model for the day and a privilege to represent you, especially as my physical appearance was acknowledged and found to be suitable for this particular assignment. During the shoot, the client asked that I sit in different positions in order to capture various angles of my face. I was also asked to wear tights over my hair, as several face shots minus the hair were required. This was my first experience of modelling, and the assignment on the whole was very enjoyable. Hopefully I've gained some valuable experience, which will help me to gain further opportunities within the industry.

Khade
Fee: £1,470
Ref:O163429

TEEN COVER STAR!

Khade has enjoyed 7 modelling assignments for well-known retailer M and M Direct Ltd. Here's what his mother, Natalie, had to say about the experiences:

"From the moment we arrived M and M Direct Ltd we were made to feel very comfortable, and the company's hospitality was fantastic. The photographer and staff enabled Khade to relax quickly; he had lots of clothes changes during the shoot and thoroughly enjoyed every minute."
"Another fantastic day doing the front cover for the Christmas Brochure. Very well looked after again, a great experience working for M and M Direct."
"M and M Direct couldn't treat us any better and make it a thoroughly enjoyable experience for him each time!"

Amy for Elsie aged 1
Fee: £120
Ref:P236853

A SUNNY BABY

Elsie did a photoshoot advertising sunblinds for pushchairs. She had to sit in a few different pushchairs with various blinds attached to them. She was very patient and happy, and really enjoyed the experience. The photographer and organiser were very good with Elsie and made her feel very comfortable. A male model did a few photos with her and he was equally as good with her. She was very content to be with everyone.

Danielle
Fee: £120
Ref:P221127

SOMETHING DIFFERENT

The assignment was interesting. I enjoyed it as it was something different. I was asked to sit in a chair and face various cameras or sit at various angles. My face was scanned and pictures were taken. I also stood on a rotating stand and a full body scan was taken. The client was organised and the session took 30 minutes as indicated.

Nicki for Tommy, aged 7
Fee: £230
Ref:E260915

DRESSING UP

We were made to feel very welcome from the start; refreshments and lunch were provided, the day was explained to us and we were shown a brochure. The children were asked to wear different dressing up outfits for the catalogue shoot. The children were put at ease and always told how well they were doing. Tommy really enjoyed his day and talked about it for days after! They were a really nice friendly group of people who we would definitely work for again.

Welcome...

SUMMER'S HERE, and whether it turns out to be a BBQ one or a wash-out, I am really enjoying all the fresh air and daylight that I can squeeze into my busy days. Isn't it funny how a bit of sunshine gives you an appetite for all things healthy?

I know it's because I'm wanting to look good while wearing less over the warmer months... but as aspiring models, you will all know the benefits of eating well, staying active and making the most of what Mother Nature gave you. If there's a look for the season it's definitely healthy, happy and natural - hopefully this issue will help you to achieve all!

Lots of fun assignments coming up, so recommend your friends to apply as models alongside you.

How to do Jet-Set glamour this summer

Those lucky enough to travel in summer know that this can be one of the most rewarding parts of the year.

And planning our wardrobe for that week in the sun is almost as good as the real thing!

As though they read our minds, H&M is now offering a taste of holiday glamour in a new chic 'Riviera lifestyle' inspired collection.

Having been available in selected stores since 31st March, the new range gives us some great modern versions of luxurious classics.

We love their flowing maxi-dresses, Grecian-style draped dresses and animal print kaftans; all perfect for the 'jet-set glamour' look this summer.

To fully embody this style, we also recommend checking out clean-cut shirts and collarless jackets and in neutral shades of sand, desert and tan.

And to finish off the look, try on accessories that dictate the look. Our models love animal print sandals with large jewel-stones and beach inspired chunky chain bracelets.

Happy holidays!

We Reveal Forbes' List Of The World's Top- Earning Models

If you're an aspiring model, you may like to know that this year, Forbes' annual list of the world's top earning models not only included those predictable regulars - ahem, Gisele - but also some refreshingly new faces.

Of course, way ahead of her fellow models, Brazilian bombshell Gisele Bündchen topped the list for the seventh time! Gisele has transformed herself from supermodel to super-businesswoman and as a result her earnings climbed $20 million over the previous year to an estimated $45 million over the past 12 months.

"Gisele Bündchen is clearly in a class by herself, and has been for a number of years," said Edward Razek, Chief Marketing Officer of Limited Brands. "She's an international icon who can also move product—from shampoo to couture."

However, if Brazilian goddesses aren't all that relatable, and let's face it, they're not, let us leave you with a little inspiration.

Thanks to the Calvin Klein campaign and Victoria's Secret presence, new faces Lara Stone and Candice Swanepoel replaced Miranda Kerr and Doutzen Kroes for two highly coveted places rounding off the list.

The 10 top-earning female models on the planet made a combined $112 million in the 12 months to May - up 30% from last year - proving that the economic recovery has been rather good to our top models this year!

Here is the full list:

- 1 Gisele Bündchen $45 million
- 2 Heidi Klum $20 million
- 3 Kate Moss - $13.5 million
- 4 Adriana Lima - $8 million
- 5 Alessandra Ambrosio - $5 million
- 6 Daria Werbowy - $4.5 million
- 7 Lara Stone - $4.5 million
- 8 Carolyn Murphy - $4.3 million
- 9 Natalia Vodianova - $4 million
- 10 Candice Swanepoel - $3 million

Topshop's T-Shirt Targets Breast Cancer

All the girls at Talent Management loved Topshop's charity 'Love to Love' vest, brought out last year for Fashion Targets Breast Cancer.

Our all time favourite retailer has been working with Fashion Targets Breast Cancer since 2005, producing printed canvas bags and t-shirts each year.

And this year is no exception; Topshop is at it again with yet another fashionable tee showing their continued support of the charity initiative.

2011's limited edition t-shirt, which is made from a soft jersey, has the very cool slogan – 'Starts with L and ends in E and in the between are O and V' – printed in black and blue.

In addition, four styles of friendship bracelets and charity mirrors will also be on sale at till-points nationwide.

The t-shirt costs just £18, £5.40 of which will be donated to Fashion Targets Breast Cancer, and will be available in-store nationwide and on topshop.com from 11th April.

Supermodel Art Up For Auction

Dubbed "The Face of 1966", British supermodel Twiggy has lent her artistic flare to a new project called HareStyling, which benefits the Great Ormond Street Hospital.

Twiggy and other celebrities were asked to create a unique piece of art centred around a hare to raise funds for the hospital.

The Kate Moss Portfolio and Other Stories Opens in NYC!

If you're going to be in New York between May 17th and July 2nd, then there's a fair few of us at Talent Management whose eyes are turning green right now.

We've just heard that Danziger Projects, which is moving to 527 West 23rd Street, will open with a two room show featuring the Kate Moss Portfolio and additional photographs of Moss by Gene Lemuel, Glen Luchford, Mary McCartney, Herb Ritts, and Peter Blake.

Ultimo Signs Up 7 'Real' Models For New Range

Since its launch, Ultimo has become one of the most famous lingerie brands in Europe thanks to its high-profile media campaigns and famous celebrity models.

But just recently, our all-time favourite lingerie company announced that seven 'real' women will be modelling their newest campaign.

The 7 lucky models chosen by Ultimo range from a size 8 to a curvier 18, demonstrating that the term 'real' doesn't automatically equate to overweight.

Ivan Bart Talks About The Importance of Models With Personality

When we really examine what it takes to be a great model, it's not surprising that good looks are only part of the equation. In an interview with Industrie magazine, IMG Models' 'super agent' Ivan Bart discussed the next generation of supermodels.

Bart told Industrie: "Everyone's asking: 'Where are all of the supermodels?' I'll tell you, the new generation of supermodels are always the models with personality, always the models you want to work with again."

So why haven't there been many models with personality in recent years? "After the supermodel, there was a hunger and desire for designers to just design clothes and let them speak for themselves, so they were looking for new faces. These girls weren't developed yet, they were sent down the runway literally just after getting off a plane from Eastern Europe."

But now it seems the tables are turning: "The reason why there are models with personality now is that the industry realised they needed experience, the experience of Miranda Kerr and Lara Stone — who really understand how to wear clothes, how to sell clothes, how to make you feel good when they walk into a room. So you say, 'Uh, I would like to work with her again.'"

Fearne Cotton Models Her New Very.co.uk Summer Collection

The Radio 1 DJ-come-fashion icon has just modelled her newest summer collection for the online retailer.

In what is a very retro chic collection – and photoshoot – Cotton looks stunning in instantly wearable pieces that reflect her unique style.

Cotton said: "The theme of this collection was being in love in the summer time. Your first love, when your stomach is in knots. There's no better feeling."

"There are some really special pieces in there, perfect for a big summer party or event, alongside some versatile key pieces."

Supermodel Doutzen Kroes Is Going Into Space!

This Victoria's Secret angel proves that there are no limits to the opportunities modelling can lead to – even if they're out of this world!

The supermodel just announced that come 2014, she will be heading into space!

Doutzen is one of the first 15 founder astronauts who were personally invited to be part of the Space Expedition Curacao.

Along with other famous faces, including Dutch trance producer and DJ Armin van Buuren, the model will make history in the world of commercial space travel.

"My work has brought me literally to the most beautiful places on earth. Yet nothing seems to be as beautiful as the sight of Earth from space," she said.

Talent Management loves the fact that a model has been included in this incredibly exciting space expedition!

Mes Dawson's Daughter To Begin Modelling Career

Charlotte Dawson, daughter of the late comedian, Les Dawson, has just been signed by a renowned London-based modelling agency.

The 18 year old, whose father is remembered for his deadpan style and roles on Blankety Blank and Opportunity Knocks, is hoping to develop a successful career in modelling with her gorgeous curves.

Dawson, who is also set to star in a low-budget British film, recently spoke to the Daily Mail, saying: "I love all types of modelling – but lingerie is obviously my favourite."

"It's nice because these days you have all the horrible Size Zero models and then you have the curvy girls doing lingerie."

Being one of Europe's leading modelling agencies, we at Talent Management think Charlotte's curves and look will take her far in the modelling world and wish her luck in becoming a successful teen model.

H&M Introduces 'The Knotted Gun' This Spring

Our models can always rely on H&M for fashion that both looks great and raises awareness and funds for various great causes.

Incorporating one of the strongest symbols of peace, 'the knotted gun', H&M's new range of T-shirts and accessories for both boys and girls will help to support the Non Violence Project Foundation. H&M's new t-shirts, many of which are made from organic cotton, have slogans and graphics to spread the non-violent message.

So join the models here at Talent Management and get your credit cards sharpened for a good cause!

Bar Refaeli Joins Twitter...Finally!

Talent Management is, at last, happy to welcome the one and only Bar Refaeli to Twitter!

The team here have been fans of the Israeli model (and occasional actress) for a long time. She did, after all, begin her modelling career before the age of 8 months with an assignment for a baby commercial.

By 15, the then teen model featured in fashion campaigns for Castro and Pllpel, and also starred in a commercial for Milky.

And now, with a host of high profile modelling jobs under her belt, including covering the 2009 Sports Illustrated Swimsuit Issue, Refaeli is continuing her success at 25-years-old.

So, we're sure you can imagine that after a reel of fake accounts, we're very excited that that the lady herself has a REAL Twitter account so that Talent Management can follow her action packed career.

If, like our Tweeters at Talent Management, you too want to keep up to date with this stunning model, then go ahead and follow @OFFICIALBR in the safe knowledge that it is the real deal Tweeting away!

57-Year-Old Christie Brinkley Still Has Supermodel Body

Dubbed a 'legend of the runway', Christie Brinkley turned up on the set of Good Morning America (GMA) recently making us all jealous in a red body-con Hervé Leger dress.

Christie Brinkley

At an unbelievable 57-years-old, we think with that body the glamorous mother of three could have easily passed for a model half her age!

Leaving us all green with envy, Brinkley left everyone at Talent Management wondering what her secret is.

As usual, her secret is in fact no secret at all – just good old fashioned exercise. Last year, Brinkley revealed that her incredible supermodel body is down to that fact that she never stops exercising – even when she is drying her hair or brushing her teeth!

So, proving that just because you're in your 50s or have children, with a little determined effort, maintaining a little youth can be done!

Agyness Deyn Bags New Film Role

You may have already seen the model known for her iconic pixie cut on the big screen – Deyn played the role of a 1930s courtesan in Mean to Me and Aphrodite in Clash of the Titans – but now her acting talents will be tested even further having just bagged a rather risqué role!

Deyn will be playing a strong-minded stripper in the remake of Danish crime film Pusher, which was originally released back in 1996.

From courtesan to Greek god to erotic dancer, Talent Management has to give it to the girl – she certainly knows how to show off her diversity as an actress!

According to Vogue. .com, the film is due out sometime next year in the spring/summer, so keep a look out!

Julie Ordon Talks Memorable Modelling Moments

When asked what has been her most memorable moment in modelling so far, Ordon said: "I'm grateful for all the moments, but it was working for Chanel for the campaign for the lipstick ROUGE; they made me feel, and think like a star, a princess!"

Julie Ordon for Chanel 'Le Rouge'

WONDERLAND

Look out for Tyler and Sky Ferreira who cover the recent Wonderland issues featuring Amy Childs

The Only Way Is Essex Star Amy Childs Models For Wonderland

Reality TV star Amy Childs has become a household name ever since she won our hearts in Britain's answer to The Hills (or maybe that should be Jersey Shore!), The Only Way Is Essex.

And now the stunning redhead is making waves in the modelling world too. Her most recent modelling job has been for the new April/May issue of the ultra-cool fashion magazine Wonderland.

In a few sneak previews of the shoot, we see Amy in a new light. Gone is the orange tan, and here is couture styling fit for royalty. Posing in a fitted black dress, our favourite shot sees Amy sporting an ultra-pale face, sultry red lips and brooding smoky eyes, styled with a crown and elbow length gloves.

Another shot sees a Marie Antoinette-styled Amy working a Vivienne Westwood gown with white-red bouffant hair accessorised with roses.

From beautician to couture model in only a few months...love her or hate her, Talent Management has to hand it to the girl!

Kate Middleton Is The New Michelle Obama, Says Michael Kors

A few of us in the Talent Management team have been comparing Kate Middleton's style to Michelle Obama's – and we're not the only ones. American designer Michael Kors – who has seen his clothes on everyone from Jennifer Lopez to Michelle Obama – told Vogue UK that he believes Prince William's new fiancée shares Obama's chic, effortless style.

Top Five Fitness Activities For Children

After a spell of bad weather, that often leads to children being stuck indoors, it can become far too easy for them to turn to the television or a computer game for entertainment.

While this is fine now and again mums are relieved to know that the promise of some milder weather will soon be on the horizon! It's great to see your child running off some energy outside, and whether it means a trip to the local park or you are lucky enough to have a garden area for them to play in, your child will really benefit from staying active. Models Direct have come up with our top five fitness activities for children to help to inspire you this summer.

Frisbee. Children love to play with a frisbee and it costs next to nothing to do. Throwing and catching will help to develop motor skills and can be really satisfying and exciting once the right technique has been mastered. This activity requires space, so it may mean a trip to the park, but we promise you'll come back with rosy cheeks and smiles on your faces! If you feel really adventurous step it up a notch and take a kite.

Ball play. Again this may mean venturing out of the garden for older children but ball play is a favourite with all ages and whether rolling, throwing or kicking it can give hours of pleasure. If you live near to a basketball court or have an area where you can erect one at home your children will love you for it. We can't think of a more fun way to improve hand-eye coordination.

Trampoline. If you have a small garden and are able to invest in a trampoline this activity will allow your child to burn off lots of energy, even while you're busy. Buy an enclosure for peace of mind and this firm favourite will tempt your child out into the fresh air again and again.

Cycling. Cycling can easily be worked in to your child's weekly routine; with a trip to the shops or even a commitment to cycling to school together on milder days. If you are lucky enough to live near a cycle track why not make use of the safety that it provides for younger cyclists.

Swimming. If the weather is bad outside, swimming provides a fantastic alternative to all of the activities mentioned above. Learning to swim is challenging, great fun and a really good skill for your child to master. What are you waiting for?

Mention Talent Management to a friend...

Madonna, Talent Fee: £128

The client appreciated my looks and made me feel positive about the modelling experience for Models Direct. I was asked to partake in 3D scanning to be used in a gaming product. The assignment was interesting as it did not involve traditional photography: it was a great learning experience!

and that you're thinking of being a part-time model...

Katy for Max aged 1, Talent Fee: £1,620

We never expected that Max would be chosen as the "hero" baby for the Pampers campaign. We were delighted and so proud of him. It has been a lovely experience and we look forward to embarrassing him with the story when he is older.

then see their reaction... they may ask.....

Jake, Talent Fee: £140

It felt great to be a model for the day. It was a really enjoyable promotional day. The best thing about the modelling assignment was seeing my picture on all the promotional magazines and advertising from the previous photo shoot.

'Boardwalk Empire' Look

Ever since the new American period drama Boardwalk Empire braced our screens, the team at Talent Management has seen a revival of the 1920s style for men, which is an immaculate and considered look that never fails to impress.

So, if you want to get the look of the moment, then keep an eye out for 1920s inspired check suiting, cashmere overcoats and patterned ties.

M&S do a great range that's bang on trend this spring/summer. Our male models' favourite is this check 1920s inspired Sartorial suit (pictured).

Tony O'Connor, Head of Menswear Design at M&S said of the trend: "Television dramas are having a massive impact on men's fashion, from the dapper looks of Don Draper in Mad Men, to the sartorial elegance of Nucky Johnson in Boardwalk Empire.

"At M&S we have seen a move towards immaculate dressing, with trends in three-piece and check suiting, pocket squares and tie pins making for a truly considered look."

So take note men. Gone is the 'thrown together' look; serious dressing for men is firmly back in fashion and Talent Management is a big fan!

Check 1920s inspired Sartorial suit, £199 at M&S

Reinvented Ballet Pumps

Braided-strap ballerina flats by Chloé, £305 at net-a-porter.com

Ever since our models saw Black Swan this winter, they've been inspired by all things ballet.

Luckily for them, ballet pumps are back on trend this spring/summer, but this time designs have taken a welcome twist on the classic look.

So instead of going for a traditional ballet pump in soft pink or nude, try out a pair with a modern take.

Our favourites are these metallic-black leather ballerina flats with a braided silver chain ankle strap by Chloé (pictured above). These elegant day-to-night pumps would definitely win any shoe war against strappy flats.

But if this price tag is a little steep for you, then don't worry, as we've already started to see this trend filter out across high street stores from Topshop to Office. So keep your eyes peeled and get ready to pair up with city shorts and a feminine blouse for a great look our models will definitely be sporting this summer.

Men In Shorts

As the weather warms up for summer, our male models have been working what is perhaps the epitome of summer fashion - shorts.

Sure, Tom Ford said that shorts on men are "never appropriate" except on the tennis court or beach, but we say otherwise and it seems the British public agrees!

This April, Marks & Spencer has seen shorts sales soaring, with men across the nation stocking up.

Tony O'Connor, Head of Menswear Design at M&S says of the trend: "The catwalks were awash with shorts for men for spring/summer 2011. The chino short is the perfect on-trend item when worn with a nautical striped blazer and polo for a sharp summer look.

Blue Harbour Shorts, £19.50 at M&S

"Strong sales of shorts at M&S prove that they are an essential item to the summer wardrobes of many men across the nation."

So gentleman, we at Talent Management give you the go ahead to embrace shorts and get those legs out for the summer!

Children's Fashion Trends Summer 2011: Bright here, bright now!

Across the majority of childrenswear trends this summer, colour plays a major role. From pretty pastels and nautical blues, right through to vibrant primary shades and hot paradise hues - colour is the way to go when updating your kids' summer wardrobe this season.

So, whether you go monochrome tone-on-tone,

Models dressed in H&M's Summer 2011 collection or be brave and colour clash all in one outfit (a look that kids can always pull off), we're sure your little angels will look great in Talent Management's top three trends:

Beachy

Great for all the sunshine we've been enjoying lately, the beach look is set to be a strong contender among childrenswear trends this year. Look out for floral, Hawaiian-type prints in bright beach colours, such as sea blues and sunny yellows. We love this year's WaterAid collection from H&M. All based around the colour of water, this uber-beachy collection features cute mini-versions of the adult designs for kids. Plus, every purchase will help WaterAid save lives and lift people out of poverty.

Urban

This spring/summer, your children will love the cool, casual and comfortable collections beginning to emerge in this urban highstreet trend. Utility shapes paired up with delicate pastels and bright and almond whites mimic the womenswear and menswear trends this season. We're big fans of Next's Peach Ruffle Short Sleeve Top, available from £11 to £16. Pair up with white Dobby Trousers and cute sandals and your girls will be all set.

Nautical

The nautical look is back again in childrenswear collections, and this year, it's cuter than ever. For a trendy and practical look, combine pieces in traditional nautical checks, prints and stripes with upbeat accessories such as sunglasses and a denim Bakerboy hat or straw Trilby for fun in the sun this season! This look works equally as well for boys and girls, and there's plenty out on the highstreet to choose from.

Women's Summer 2011 Highstreet Trends

REINVENTING YOUR WARDROBE

H&M, a brand that always delivers up-to-the-minute trends within affordable fashion, says that this spring is all about "reinventing classic favourites"; great news for all of us that steer towards a chic and simple look.

And if you, like most of our models here at Talent Management, already have a wardrobe full of classic pieces, your finances as well as your look will be in good shape this season - just rework those classics with clever styling to create a completely new and on trend look.

"It's great to reinvent your wardrobe at the beginning of a new season," says H&M's head of design, Ann-Sofie Johansson. "Fashion doesn't change as drastically as it used to so you could easily get last season's favourites to work with smart updates."

The 60s and 70s are also huge fashion influences this coming season, with "brightly coloured shapes that are short and sharp alongside a more romantic silhouette that is long and elegant", says H&M.

To give the classic 'long and loose' and 'short and sharp' silhouettes a modern edge, pair up with modern accessories and essentials that have unique shapes and proportions.

"Safe buys for spring are cool classics in beige or white, and the longer skirts and dresses feel new and very feminine," Johansson advises.

Must have a round/heart shaped face, rather than a long one. Model must have a bubbly personality, who can play up to the camera, as if messing around with a friend. The style is going to be that of a girl being filmed by her friends, in a teenage habitat, as if filmed on a mobile phone. Happiness, in an authentic teen way is key.
